

STUDY GUIDE

FOR SUNDAY LECTURE ON JANUARY ▪

Summary

This lecture features three Nation Of Islam Ministers: Student Minister Joseph Muhammad, Student Minister Linda Muhammad, and the keynote speaker Student Regional Minister Rodney Muhammad. Joseph Muhammad emphasizes the importance of staying informed using The Final Call newspaper, as a vital tool to understand world events. He also highlights the mission of the Nation of Islam, which includes informing their people and striving to build a new nation.... He discusses the need for intellectual courage and growth beyond current understandings....

Linda Muhammad focuses on the concept of God's grace, which is extended through the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan.... She sees the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan as a witness bearer and a messenger..., and encourages viewers to see themselves and their leaders in biblical prophecy.

Rodney Muhammad discusses breaking free from old ways and embracing a new life.... He speaks of God's intervention in human affairs and the importance of understanding the signs of the times.... He also introduces the idea of a spiritual clinic to destroy the works of Satan. He stresses the importance of believing in the unseen..., and emphasizes that a new world is coming based on truth. He extends an invitation to Islam, speaking of the possibility of transformation within days.... He also highlights that knowledge, wisdom, and understanding are a path to power... and warns about the deceptive nature of false religion. They all suggest that the current times are significant and filled with meaning, while the importance of the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad is emphasized. This lecture presents a call to action and transformation for viewers.
