SUMMARY

Student In The Ministry Joseph Muhammad opens the service, praising Master Muhammad, who is identified as the long-awaited Messiah of the Christians and the Mahdi of the Muslims. He expresses gratitude for the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, who was spared from divine destruction because he identified Master Fard Muhammad, thus sparing all of humanity. The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan is presented as the current guide and champion, serving as the embodiment of Master Fard Muhammad and the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad. The audience is instructed to seek assistance through patience and prayer, emphasizing that Allah is with the patient. Joseph Muhammad stresses the need to put on the whole armor of God to stand against the "wiles of the devil" and spiritual wickedness in high places. He closes his introductory remarks by highlighting that desire is the essential "food that builds a will" necessary for enduring difficulty.

Student In The Ministry Tuere Muhammad focuses her message on the historic Million Man March (October 16, 1995), which she describes as a "glimpse of heaven on earth" dedicated to atonement, reconciliation, and responsibility. The March successfully disproved the negative narrative that characterizes black men as violent. She reveals that Minister Farrakhan's call for the March stemmed from a vision-like experience where he was shown that the U.S. government planned a war on two fronts: one against Libya and the second "dealing with the black youth in the streets of America". Tuere Muhammad upholds Minister Farrakhan's role as a divine Warner, citing his warning against the COVID vaccine, stating they were "trying to kill us softly". She concludes that remaining in the spirit of atonement is the path to mend relationships and ensure the mind of Satan dies a natural death among the people. She also references the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad's teaching that a careful study of history is vital, as the "knowledge of the future is judged by the knowledge of the past".

Student Regional Minister Rodney Muhammad delves into the theological and political aspects of the movement. He reminds the audience that they are currently living in the days of Allah, a time when a new government of peace and security is being established. This new government will not be left to the scholars and scientists of the present world, who lack the knowledge to build anything different from what already exists. Rodney Muhammad explores the strategy of the enemy, citing the Holy Qur'an where Iblis (Satan) requests respite and declares, "I will certainly lie in thy straight path" to bring confusion over religion. He identifies fear as the number one weapon used by the enemy to hold the black man back from his destiny. Rodney Muhammad elaborates on the concept of resurrection, clarifying that the Nation of Islam believes in mental resurrection, not physical resurrection. He notes that the term "Negro" derived from the Greek necro (death), referencing the preoccupation with death among their fathers in ancient Egypt, which is why they are "most in need" of this mental resurrection. He affirms that the resurrection process begins with the self accusing spirit, which leads to a moral awakening. He cautions followers to heed the Minister's guidance, ensuring they follow where he directs, because "where he's going, he's able to handle".

7. Question: According to the study guide passages cited by Joseph Muhammad, what element is identified as the "food that builds a will," and why must this element be kept alive?
