

The Nation Program

God's Answer to Violence, Poverty, and Fear

STUDY GUIDE

LECTURE: THE NATION'S PROGRAM:
GOD'S ANSWER TO VIOLENCE, POVERTY AND FEAR

DELIVERED: SUNDAY MARCH 15 2026

KEYNOTE:
REGIONAL STUDENT MINISTER
RODNEY MUHAMMAD

SUMMARY

In this powerful and thought-provoking lecture, Student In The Ministry Joseph Muhammad and Student Regional Minister Rodney Muhammad deliver a deep message on spiritual maturity, knowledge of self, and the responsibility of believers to transform their communities.

Student In The Ministry Joseph Muhammad opens the discussion by examining the spiritual, moral, and economic readiness required to properly understand and defend the teachings of the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, as represented today by The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan. He challenges believers to remain steadfast in truth and warns that many may reach the door of their salvation yet turn away due to emotional tests or misunderstanding.

Continuing the message, Student Regional Minister Rodney Muhammad explores the deeper meaning of knowledge, faith, and self-understanding in the life of the Black community. Drawing from scripture, history, and the teachings of the Nation of Islam, he explains that the knowledge of self is the greatest knowledge, and that true empowerment begins with understanding who we are historically, spiritually, and biologically.

The lecture addresses:

- The importance of spiritual discipline and study
- The role of knowledge in liberation and empowerment
- The hidden history of oppressed people
- The dangers of misinformation and emotional manipulation
- Why righteousness and knowledge are the foundation of true civilization
- The responsibility of believers to build safe and decent communities

This message also highlights the importance of following divine guidance in a time of increasing social, political, and moral challenges.

Through powerful insight and historical reflection, the speakers remind us that true change begins with knowledge, faith, and the transformation of the individual mind.

Study Guide

Student In The Ministry Joseph Muhammad

(7 Questions and Answers)

1. What three elements did Joseph Muhammad say are necessary for readiness to embrace reality?
Spiritual, moral, and economic readiness are necessary to properly embrace and understand reality.
2. Why did Joseph Muhammad say emotional reactions can be dangerous when examining leadership or history?
Emotional reactions can distort the truth and cause people to misinterpret events or teachings.
3. What example was used to illustrate how language can influence perception?
Malcolm X's description of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad's domestic life was used as an example of how wording can create emotional reactions and negative perceptions.

4. What warning did Joseph Muhammad repeat from earlier teachers about salvation?
Many people may reach the door of their salvation but turn away because of tests or doubts.
 5. What type of test did Joseph Muhammad say believers may face?
Believers may face tests that challenge their faith in the teachings they already know to be true.
 6. What responsibility comes with gaining knowledge of truth?
Once someone knows the truth, returning to previous wrongdoing is no longer ignorance but conscious disobedience.
 7. What study material did Joseph Muhammad encourage believers to obtain and study?
He encouraged believers to study the Nation of Islam study guides and teachings to prepare for the times ahead.
-

Study Guide

Student Regional Minister Rodney Muhammad

(12 Questions and Answers)

1. What is the most valuable form of capital according to Rodney Muhammad?
The most valuable capital is knowledge, because knowledge lives in the mind and guides action.
2. Why is the follower considered the greatest asset of a man of God?
Because a faithful follower can help bring ideas and visions into reality through obedience and belief.
3. What did Rodney Muhammad say is the greatest knowledge a person can obtain?
The knowledge of self is the greatest knowledge.
4. Why is knowledge of self connected to the knowledge of God?
Because understanding oneself helps a person understand their relationship to the Creator.
5. What did Rodney Muhammad say happens when people know their true identity?
When people know who they are, it becomes very difficult to enslave or control them.
6. What problem did Rodney Muhammad say government programs often fail to solve?
He said many government programs fail to solve poverty, unemployment, and family breakdown in Black communities.
7. What role does righteousness play in the future survival of believers?
Righteousness will sustain believers during difficult times.
8. Why did Rodney Muhammad say environment influences behavior?
Because social conditions such as poverty and lack of opportunity shape people's expectations and actions.
9. What did Rodney Muhammad say is the real solution for improving communities?
The solution is a program rooted in divine guidance and righteousness.
10. Why did he say many young people feel hopeless?
Because their environment and circumstances have created low expectations about their future.
11. What historical lesson did Rodney Muhammad give about civilization?
Civilization is built on knowledge, self-discipline, and righteous conduct.

12. What transformation does knowledge bring to people who receive it?

Knowledge changes the mind, raises expectations, and empowers people to rebuild themselves and their communities.